STPD Introduces Dog Walker and Watch

- Corporal Myslinski recently coordinated a group of Township volunteers to join our new community outreach initiative, Dog Walker and Watch.
- Following a brief training session on January 5, 2026, twenty residents are now prepared to assist the Solebury Township Police Department by reporting anything unusual they observe while out walking in their neighborhoods.
- Volunteers were reminded that their role is strictly to observe and notify STPD—not to approach individuals or intervene in any situation.
- A second training session will be offered this spring for additional residents who wish to participate.
- Materials for this program were generously sponsored by the Solebury Township Police Foundation.

Complaints Against Police

STPD received a complaint against an officer in January.

Sergeant Mansour investigated the claim of rudeness, and it was found to be unsubstantiated.

Training

- Corporal Brendan Murphy has begun the prestigious Northwestern University School of Police Staff and Command, an intensive 10-week leadership and executive management program designed to prepare experienced law enforcement professionals for senior command roles.
- This nationally recognized program has also been completed by Chief Warner, Detective Sergeant Koretzky, and Corporal Marascio, continuing the department's commitment to advanced leadership development.
- Funding for Corporal Murphy's participation was made possible through a grant sponsored by the Bucks County Chiefs of Police Association.

Training

Officer Larry Grawe, Jr. has been selected to serve as the department's newest Field Training Officer (FTO).

Although he has been with STPD for only two years, his ten years of experience with the Philadelphia Police Department have prepared him well for this role and for training our newest officers.

Officer Grawe successfully completed the 40-hour FTO certification this month.

Congratulations, Officer Grawe, Jr.!

Meet Officer Gavin Leh

- Officer Gavin Leh is no stranger to law enforcement—his father previously served as a part-time officer with STPD.
- Gavin is a graduate of Central Bucks East High School and gained experience working part-time as a Parking Enforcement Officer with the New Hope Borough Police Department.
- He successfully graduated from the Montgomery County Police Academy in December 2025.
- Welcome aboard, Officer Leh!
