Local Heroes: Supervisors and Police Chief Commend Officers & Residents

In June, the Board of Supervisors and Police Chief Dominick Bellizzie recognized three Township officers for police work and lifesaving actions taken while on duty.

Three residents were also commended for first aid they administered in two separate emergencies.

As Chief Bellizzie noted on the certificates he presented, each of the individuals he commended is a credit to the police department and Solebury Township.

Detective Corporal Jonathan M. Koretzky was officially commended for his diligent investigative efforts while working as part of a two-county team of detectives in April. The team was investigating a series of burglaries in Bucks and Montgomery Counties, and Corporal Koretzky’s work was instrumental in identifying and locating the suspect and stolen property. The offender was charged with multiple counts of burglary and related offenses.

Sergeant Kevin Edwards and Officer Gary Forrester were officially commended for administering first aid that helped save a man’s life. In May, they were dispatched to Rice’s Market, where they took over lifesaving duties from two civilians, who had been administering CPR to an unresponsive man in cardiac arrest.

After analyzing the situation, the officers aided the victim with an automated external defibrillator, which brought back his pulse.

Residents Kathy Glenn and Melanie Bliss were recognized as the private citizens administering CPR to the man at the market when police arrived.

The victim was transported to Doylestown Hospital, where doctors informed all involved that their quick actions saved the man’s life.

Finally, resident Armando Jose Martinez was honored for a separate emergency that took place at the New Hope Lodge in the Woods in the predawn hours of December 10. While Bucks County Radio Room staff coached him on speaker phone, he administered CPR to a man in cardiac arrest until police and emergency personnel arrived. Thanks to his actions, the man had a full recovery.

Hurricane Season Tips: Storing Water for Emergencies

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, clean tap water can be stored for up to six months in sanitized soda bottles or milk jugs with screw-on tops. After six months, use the water for other purposes, sanitize again, and refill.

To sanitize the bottles:
- Wash the bottles with warm (not hot) soapy water.
- Fill with water plus a teaspoon of bleach per quart, let it sit for two minutes, then empty and rinse with potable water.
- Fill the sanitized jugs with tap water, cap tightly, and label with “drinking water” and the date.
- Store in a cool, dark, dry place.

New Ordinance Creates “Solebury Township Farm Committee”

Following through on a priority identified in January, in mid-July the Board of Supervisors approved the Township’s new “Farm Ordinance,” which authorizes the creation of an advisory committee, comprised primarily of residents engaged in agriculture, whose role will be to advise Solebury on ways to protect farmland and support and strengthen the economic viability of local farming.

While the Township has worked with landowners to preserve farms for 20 years—and continues to seek more farms for preservation—working farmers face other challenges that make it difficult for them to make a living, said Supervisor Kevin Morrissey, who worked with Supervisors Paul Cosdon and Noel Barrett to develop the ordinance.

“Farming enhances the lifestyle of all who live in Solebury,” he said. “You do not have to live on the farm to benefit from the low taxes and open space environment it creates.”

But the Township’s “current farmers are nearing retirement age,” he noted. “The challenge for Solebury and many other communities is to attract the next generation of farmers.”

To develop the new ordinance, the supervisors sought input from local farmers. Along the way, Kevin said, they learned that in spite of changes in the Township across the last few decades, “the average farmer still enjoys the farm life in Solebury. They seem very motivated to maintain their farms if they can.”

The role of the new ordinance is to help them do that. “Solebury needs to ensure that farming is a viable lifestyle option for future farmers,” he said. And who better to advise the Township on how to do that than the farmers themselves—“who better understand the issues confronting farming.”

The new ordinance states that the new three-to-seven-member Farm Committee will:

- Provide information to local farmers, residents, and Township committees about the benefits of balancing agriculture with other land uses.
- Educate Township officials about agricultural laws, safety issues, and zoning issues.
- Recommend ways to create a climate that more fully supports the economic viability and sustainability of farming in the Township.
- Develop and maintain an inventory of area farms and farm markets that includes location and size, and highlights significant agricultural lands.
- Carry out agricultural support tasks as requested by the supervisors.
- Coordinate activities with the Township’s new, state-mandated Agricultural Security Committee, when appropriate.

If you are a resident and are interested in being appointed to the Farm Committee, reach out to Kevin (kevinn4solebury@gmail.com or 215-862-5256) and briefly note any agriculture-related work you do and why you’d like to serve on the committee.

2nd Annual “Solebury Day”

In a few weeks, the Township will hold its second annual “Solebury Day”—a community wide event designed to celebrate all that is Solebury by fostering community pride, promoting Township programs, and encouraging volunteerism.

You don’t want to miss it!

The event is scheduled for Sept. 17 at Laurel Park, with a rain date of Sept. 18.

A dunk tank will give participants an opportunity to test their baseball pitching skills and sink some local folks in the water! And the Township’s giant dinosaur moon-bounce will be on hand for children.

Also on the schedule is a pet parade, a cake-and-pie baking competition, music, sports, and more activities for children, like face-painting, balloon art, and craft projects focused on nature and the environment.

Eagle Fire Company trucks and personnel will be on hand to promote fire safety and give children a look at their equipment, and the Police, Public Works, and Parks & Recreation Depts., NH-S Free Library, Cub Scouts, Manoff Market Gardens, NH-S Community School, NH-S Cares, Trinity Day School, Solebury Township Historical Society, and others will offer information and demonstrations related to their activities.

Township advisory committees, community groups, and several local vendors will also be present.

Local restaurants and farms will attend, and the snack stand will be open, along with Bitter Bob’s authentic barbeque food and Nina’s Waffles and Ice Cream truck.
The Township is reaching out to residents for information about individuals who may need assistance from rescue personnel during an emergency evacuation or other crisis.

The elderly and individuals with physical or cognitive limitations, language barriers, lack of transportation, or other impediments to acting independently are some examples of people who may need this kind of assistance.

Of particular concern are individuals who may have difficulty communicating with others during an emergency, as they may become lost or disoriented, but be unable to tell emergency personnel where they live and what they need.

Having this information on file ahead of time can help rescue workers identify the individual when an incident arises and expedite his or her return to safety.

Caregivers should provide any information about the individual they believe would help emergency personnel assist the person with special needs in a time of crisis.

This should include the individual’s name and address, medical needs, and any information that might help workers forge a personal connection with the individual (e.g., a nickname, a favorite hobby, or the name of a beloved pet), as well as a photo, the type of support the individual is likely to need, and caregivers’ contact information.

Send the information to the attention of Assistant Township Manager Gretchen Rice by email (soleburytownship@soleburytwp.org), by phone (215-297-5656), by post (Solebury Township, P.O. Box 139, Solebury, PA 18963), or in person.

The information you provide will be maintained in a confidential file, to be shared only with the Police Department, the Emergency Management Coordinator, and rescue workers, as needed.

If you previously provided this information, you do not have to do so again unless any of the information you provided has changed.

Police Chief Dominick Bellizzie encourages parents to stress the back-to-school and Halloween safety issues below with their children. “Also, as drivers, we all need to pay attention to the activity of children at school bus stops, to the school buses on our roads, and to parents dropping children off at schools and bus stops,” he said.

Police Offer Fall Safety Tips

Back-to-School Safety
- Team up with other parents to supervise children at the bus stop.
- Teach your children to:
  - Follow the same safe route to school or the bus stop each day and cross safely at corners.
  - Pay attention to traffic hazards and not to rush.
  - Stay out of the roadway when waiting for buses.
  - Wait for the red stop-arm to fall and the bus door to open, then look both ways, before boarding.
  - Sit quickly, talk quietly, and obey the bus driver.
  - Look both ways when exiting the school bus.
- If you drive your children to school:
  - Decrease traffic by carpooling.
  - Follow the school’s posted traffic flow signs.
  - Observe the 15 mph limit in school zones.
- Adjust commuting times to allow for school traffic.
- Make sure there are no obstacles on your property, like overgrown landscaping, that may make it hard for drivers to see children waiting for the school bus.
- When school traffic causes delays, remember that the road is not the place to make up lost time.
- Always be alert for children darting between cars and crossing streets, especially on Halloween.

Trick-or-Treat Safety
- Use only fire-retardant materials for costumes.
- Make costumes fit loosely, so kids can wear warm clothes underneath.
- Select costumes that do not cause tripping.
- Attach strips of reflective tape to costumes and treat bags so children are more visible.
- Choose nontoxic make-up over masks, so children can see and breathe better.
- Do not allow children to carry sharp objects.
- Supervise children under 12 while trick-or-treating.
- Direct older children to carry cell phones, travel in groups, and follow a preset route.
- Encourage children to walk, rather than run.
- Tell them not to enter homes without adult supervision.
- Be sure youngsters know to walk on sidewalks, not in the street or through dark yards.
- Insist that treats be brought home for inspection before they are eaten.
- Feed children before trick-or-treating so they are not tempted to snack.
- Wash and slice fruit into small pieces before eating.
- When in doubt, throw it out.

Planning an Addition or Renovation?
